NOTICE TO OBLIGOR

Take Notice that the foregoing Motion asks the Court to order withholding from your wages to enforce a child support obligation, and

1. If the Court orders withholding, the Order will apply to wages from your current employer and from any future employer.
2. If wage withholding is ordered, it will continue until
  - a. the child support order being enforced has expired or becomes invalid; or
  - b. the party initiating this proceeding, the district court judge, and you agree to terminate withholding because there is another adequate means to collect child support or arrearages; or
  - c. all valid arrearages owed to the State are paid in full, and the whereabouts of each child for whom support is owed and the party entitled to receive the support payments are unknown.
